

UNIVERSAL BEING

2025 Moving Through Eternity

“Man comes to knowledges or information as the time is right.” – The Council

Is the human species just another irrelevant blip in the endless existence of a physical universe? No.

We have a sensitivity within us that is attuned to the whispers of spirituality, if we only choose to listen and perceive.

Sadly, the world today is so awash in distracting noise and downright denial of anything beyond physical life that many have gone deaf. At “Moving Through Eternity,” SOL’s presenters will open our ears, reminding us of our true nature and our potential to expand our awareness beyond physical limitations.

Denny Highben

The day begins with SOL Associate Denny Highben, author of SOL’s new book: William Allen LePar, The Spiritual Rosetta Stone For The End Of Our Age. He will cover highlights from the book and talk about some of his experiences with LePar, the deep trance psychic who founded SOL. An award-winning journalist during his working years, Highben likens his time with SOL as similar to being “embedded” with the organization – the mission goes on with honest reporting from within. He will also discuss several crucial themes from LePar and The Council, the source that spoke through LePar’s trances. After all, the book’s title concludes “For The End Of Our Age.”

Rev. Jeff Goggins

After a break, the conference will continue with the Rev. Jeff Goggins speaking on Reclaiming Our Spiritual Power.

“What if we don’t have to wait until we die to experience Life beyond this life? What if Peace and Joy and Love are fully available to us, and we can co-create the most beautiful, heavenly world right now?” Goggins asks. “We’ll open by exploring such questions. Then we’ll have some space to experience the possibilities that arise through a guided meditation type of practice. And we’ll end with a time for sharing. Come with your questions and wonderings, your fears and doubts. Don’t forget your imagination and your intuitive, inner knowing. And most important, come with an open heart and mind, ready to receive and experience whatever arises and unfolds for you!” Goggins is an ordained pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and before and beyond that he “is a seeker, healer, learner, and lover of All That Is.”

Jeanne Grimes

After a casual lunch (included), we wrap up the day with Jeanne Grimes, an accomplished explorer along many paths into personal growth. Her topic will be The Benefits of Automatic Writing.

She has been using automatic writing for more than 20 years to gain information and wisdom from her guides. Jeanne will “explain the sacred process of Automatic Writing that allows the Higher Self or your Angel to channel messages directly through you.”

The benefits range from improved creativity and better insights by accessing the subconscious to an emotional release from buried, pent-up emotions. After the discussion, she said, “We will then practice some easy Automatic Writing exercises.”

The author of I Painted the Light, Jeanne is a psychic/medium, Reiki Master, Shamanic Practitioner and Starseed.
