SUGGESTIONS ON READING THE TRANCE LIBRARY FILES

by

WILLIAM ALLEN LePAR

I appreciate your interest in the information we have been receiving from The Council, the spiritual source which speaks through the Trances. In all the years that I have been manifesting the Deep Catatonic Trance, I have learned a great deal from The Council, and I earnestly wish that you also gain a greater understanding of our existence.

These Library Files present information from The Council over a vast range of topics. In some cases, the information presented comes from one or two Trances that were usually held consecutively, within a few weeks or months of each other. In other Library Files, the information is selected from Trances held over many years. In all cases, if you study these Library Files carefully, you will notice a common thread of awareness that runs through all the information that The Council presents.

You may also notice that by the manner in which The Council presents the information, it becomes evident that they are layering awarenesses and insights. The observant reader will realize this progression of awareness and the unfolding of these insights.

These Library Files will not reveal their deepest insights to you with a casual reading. You must study them and reflect upon them. I would advise you to read the Library File at least twice and reflect on the information that The Council gives.

Again, thank you for your interest. I sincerely hope that you benefit from the Council's wisdom.

Sincerely,

SOL

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE COUNCIL

by

William Allen LePar

The Council has often referred to themselves as "spiritual beings." We must remember that this is a very elusive term and means something far greater than what we normally have been taught to understand as "spiritual beings."

In our finite minds we look upon spiritual beings as living beings confined in similar manners as we in the physical, and this is not the case with some levels beyond the physical. But in this expanded description from The Council, we begin to realize that there are levels that we can reach as spiritual beings that far surpass our present concepts.

Respectfully, I submit The Council's own personal description of themselves.

THE COUNCIL SPEAKS OF THEMSELVES

After a soul or an entity has accomplished a certain level or degree of perfection, through whatever system that is the ruling belief system of that time, then the individual or the soul or the entity is elevated to a level wherein it is not necessary for reincarnation. Once entering the spiritual realms without the need to reincarnate, a growth period is undergone. Many steps of awareness or many levels of awareness are accomplished, many degrees of elevation, many degrees of perfection until finally the soul, the entity has evolved into a state where there are no levels, no degrees, but begins to expand in love and awareness to the point where there is a total mergence or merging with other beings; where all ideas of limitations, all awarenesses of false limitations, have been done away with; where the person or the soul or the entity begins to realize its true unlimitedness and in that begins to expand greater and greater and greater, interweaving more delicately and more closely with all others and all other things, and in so doing grows closer to the Divine Himself. Once a soul or entity has reached this level, then they are in union with others, total union, yet completely individual, and yet completely united. This soul, this entity has its own personality, yet delicately flows in and out and with other souls but yet maintains its own personality, its own being. The soul, the entity becomes more god-like in that it becomes part of all things, yet maintains its own personality, its own being. Once a soul has reached this level then there is no name, there is no body as you would recognize or understand, but a more complete and unlimited Child of God, one who is so developed that no name could ever describe him. That is the existence we live in, and if you wish to use confining and restricting terminologies as levels, then we souls have to say that is the level we exist in. In all of mankind's history this level has never before spoken in the physical plane.

Even though we refer to ourselves as "spiritual beings," we use such statements only to give all who come to us some idea to relate to or some concept that they can relate to.

THE TRANCE PHENOMENON

We believe The Trances of William Allen LePar are the rarest paranormal experiences known to modern man. The only example of a similar phenomenon ended with the death of Edgar Cayce in 1945. The Council's unparalleled revelations, through Mr. LePar's trances, are made available to the public through the SOL Association for Research. His time and efforts are without compensation, and SOL is a non-profit, tax-exempt concern dependent on the commitment of volunteers.

The following is a brief explanation of a Trance, so those without the opportunity to participate have a better understanding of the phenomenon. On the day of a Trance, Mr. LePar remains in a peaceful environment. He consumes little food and The Council recommends his diet include red shellfish. He engages in considerable prayer and meditation throughout the day.

Those participating in a Trance, to question The Council, gather about a half hour before the session for socializing. Nancy LePar, his wife, is always the last to leave her husband before a Trance begins. She sits with him in a separate room as he quiets himself with prayer and meditation. When she enters the room in which the trance is to be conducted, all talking and noise cease. Soon he enters, silent and already in an altered state. With everyone seated and quiet, he enters, removes his slippers and positions himself on the floor.

He wears, as instructed by The Council, loose clothing of all natural fabric. Also, Mr. LePar wears no metal other than a wedding ring and cross. As he rests his head and bare feet on pillows, he maneuvers his body into alignment with magnetic north. Those participating, following instructions from The Council, are to place themselves in a quiet, prayerful state as until this remarkable source begins to speak. There are two distinct time periods in the linking of LePar's spiritual vibrations with those of The Council. The first period concludes with LePar's extremely deep and rapid breathing, a form of hyperventilation. His hands, folded across the abdomen, quiver; his left leg stiffens and his left foot extends. Then, suddenly, silence. It seems almost as if he has stopped breathing. Finally, The Council begins to speak -- slowly at first, repeating the name of the Trance moderator, until the link with the physical world is ready. It usually takes about thirty minutes from the time Mr. LePar lies down until The Council speaks. But on some occasions, for a variety of reasons, it can be as long as 45 minutes.

Once The Council begins to communicate, a Trance usually lasts between ninety minutes and two hours. The Council is offered the opportunity to give the gathering an opening statement, which has always become a segment of information useful for universal spiritual growth. Then, the trances follow a simple question-and-answer format, beginning with written questions and continuing with follow-up questions raised by The Council's comments. At some sessions, there are so many follow-up questions that only the first question asked will be from the list of written questions.

Afterwards, when Mr. LePar awakens, he remembers nothing. His memory is blank from the time his wife leaves him before each session until he awakens at the conclusion of the Trance. He is always physically drained, cold and disoriented. He is helped to a seat, wrapped in an afghan for warmth, and given a slice of bread and a glass of orange juice to help him recover.

We hope you profit from the information in these Trance Library Files. If reading a particular file gives rise to a question, we encourage you to contact us for more information. Thank you.

FOREWORD

The Council has told us on many occasions that truth has always been available to mankind from the very beginning. As you read this Trance Library File, you may note similarities to information from other sources. You will also encounter new information. You may be surprised by some of the information revealed by The Council, to the point where it strains your credulity. The Council realizes this, and so they often begin a Research Group Trance with an opening statement such as this:

Again, a reminder as we have said before, we ask that you think about what we have said, the answers to your questions. It is not necessary to accept everything we say, but we do ask that you take the time to think on what we have said and hold it for possible use or acceptance at a later time. What is most important is that you do think, that you exercise your God-given mind. Use what you can use and store away that which is not serviceable at this time, for if you wish to see a dawn tomorrow with its clear blue skies, you must make ready for it now. If you cannot believe that tomorrow will be a better day than today, then it will not be so for you. If you do not carry the light of tomorrow, then where will it come from? If your tomorrow is not planned for today, then how can it exist? Forearmed with the knowledge of the path you are presently traveling, you are then in a position to create a better path for your travels tomorrow. The outlook for the children of the Divine is definitely a bright and sunny day. Only you can make the decision as to what your tomorrow will be. We have one distinct advantage over each of you, and that is we have gone through the process of life that you are presently experiencing and in those activities we have learned that one must never narrow their vision down to what they prefer to see, but it is great wisdom when one is willing to look at the total picture, even those segments that one wishes were not there.

Always keep this concept in mind: Use what information you can, and that which you cannot agree with, put it aside for now. Do not discard it, for you may find it very useful in the future.

Reincarnation⁽¹⁾

Selection # 16⁽³⁾

Reincarnation⁽⁴⁾ was discussed on 80-06-28⁽⁵⁾, the 78th Trance⁽⁶⁾.

The word "reincarnation was first found on page 1235, in line 387⁽⁷⁾.

386⁽⁸⁾

387 :⁽⁹⁾ Since we believe in reincarnation, and apparently have experienced death a number 388 of times, why do the majority of us fear death, and why do we not have a conscious 389 awareness of what it is like beyond the veil?

390

391 C:⁽¹⁰⁾ If you have reincarnated then evidently you have not fulfilled or let us say you 392 have not taken advantage of the opportunities available to you while in the material 393 manifestation, thus you have relegated yourselves to the man-made heavenly realms. The 394 fear comes from a degree of awareness of the conditions in the man-made heavenly realms.

134 hears that his future tomorrow or the next day or next year will be 135 bright and rosy, this allows him to continue on his path that he is 136 traveling today. The violence in your schools, in your society, 137 will not be eliminated as long as your world is so materialistic, 138 as long as parents no longer exercise their parental duties, as 139 long as the dollar is more valuable than the family, as long as 140 time spent at work is more important than time spent in the 141 homeplace.

142 What is your future? Look at today, look at yesterday, and the 143 day before, that is the future of mankind, but it does not 144 necessarily mean that that is your future. You can elevate yourself 145 above the negativity of your world today. Change yourself into a 146 better person. Become closer to your Divine Source and you do this 147 through the way you interact with each other, the kindness that you 148 show each other, the compassion you have and the love that you 149 have. In your own personal life make commitments to those that you 150 say you love, and uphold those commitments under any set of 151 circumstances.

152 Don't be like a fish in a bowl that is contented to be 153 entrapped in a very small world swimming around in circles. Allow 154 yourself if you are so trapped to swim not in circles but in a 155 spiral upwards so that eventually as you come to the surface closer 156 to the light it penetrates you and brings about a metamorphosis in 157 which you can raise yourself above the water and breathe air. Be 158 lifted up out of that fishbowl into the world above.

159 If you are fortunate to have someone who loves you, do all 160 that you can do to protect that love, to return it regardless of 161 the cost to you, for in your day true love is at a premium price, 162 for so little of it exists. Do nothing to jeopardize that love just 163 to satisfy your own self-seeking pleasures and ego, for you never 164 know it may be your only opportunity for true happiness. When you 165 love someone, you fulfill their needs, you make strong their weak 166 points as they will make strong your weak points, and you relish in 167 their strength as they should relish in yours. Many times those 168 that we love, due to the course of their life, whether it be their 169 fault or the way life is dealt to them or presented to them, some 170 of those individuals carry deep scars. Take into consideration 171 these scars, these old wounds, attempt to put the balm of love or 172 the salve of love over that scar tissue so that it heals and 173 becomes anew. Those that you love, make them feel secure in your 174 love. It might be necessary to repeat over and over your love for 175 the individual. Do so. It's of no cost to you, yet such 176 thoughtfulness, such caring, such compassion, and such 177 understanding can bring great rewards for so little effort, because 178 In so doing you help that person to feel safe.

179 What is love? Love is everything that you can imagine that is 180 good. It is the desire to make whole another individual by filling 181 in all the cracks and crevices, all the holes, all the broken edges 182 that life may have chipped away.
183 Fill your mate with love, help that person to bloom and your 184 reward will be one of the finest thrones ever imaginable by the 185 mind of man in the heavens above. Speak of garlands -- Complete one 186 individual with your love, make one individual feel secure and 187 happy and you wear the greatest crown possible.
188 Love and commitment are the essence of creation. The Divine 189 Presence when He brought all this, as you understand, into being, 190 the motivating wish behind your creation was a Love that would be 191 full and complete, a commitment to provide every opportunity 192 possible for you as one of His children, as one of His creations, 193 to be totally secure and full and complete, enveloped in the purest 194 of all loves. You, as you are now, cannot create or give in the 195 same quantity as this Divine Essence can but you can come very, 196 very close in quality, and this can be achieved very simply by 197 thinking about the person you profess to love, thinking about them 198 before you think about yourself and your mundane, puny, little 199 life. For what you give, what you do to help make an individual 200 whole will be returned to you either now or hopefully in your 201 experiences beyond the physical.
202 Don't wish for your rewards now, don't allow rewards to come 203 to you through a moment's hesitation, for if you do that will be 204 the reward, nothing more, nothing permanent for that reward will go 205 the same avenue as your physical body. Seek the rewards that come 206 to you in the hereafter for then they become permanent and forever
207 lasting. They become the steps so that you may mount your throne
208 and rule your domain in the heavens above. Those rewards that come 209 to you in the hereafter will give you the power of creation beyond 210 your wildest dreams or imagination, all from simply giving totally 211 of yourself to someone else, giving love and understanding to 212 someone you say your care about, making them feel secure and safe 213 even though the outside world may frighten them. Be their guardian, 214 their protector, and the Divine Essence will be your guardian and 215 your protector, for if you have taken care of one of His little 216 children, He most assuredly will take care of you.
217 The little children of God are those that the world has turned 218 against, are those that the world has abused and used in one way or 219 another. Those little children are those individuals who have given 220 all they can give and have never had anything returned to them. If 221 you have been so honored to be in the presence of one of the 222 children of God, don't lose your opportunity. In your world today, 223 there are very few children of God. How sad. What will happen to 224 your world, to your society, when there are no more of these little 225 children, no more givers, only takers?
